

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XVII.

STANFORD, KY. TUESDAY, JULY 30, 1889.

NO. 49.

A Note of Warning.

The Courier-Journal, after a careful survey of the field, says there are serious grounds of apprehension of the result of the election for treasurer, and if the democratic party is to be saved from a humiliating defeat, it must be done by securing a full democratic vote.

Let all other considerations but that of democratic success be at once put aside. The one issue now is that of party ascendancy. The republicans are bending every energy and using every means at their disposal to compass the defeat of Capt. Sharp, a gentleman of high character and unquestioned integrity. Patronage, promises and money are being poured out lavishly, and a still hunt is being made with confident expectation of success.

Democrats owe it to themselves, to their party, and to our faithful governor, to see that the election of Mr. Sharp is put beyond question. The dishonesty of Mr. Tate is not to be denied. The republicans are making all they can of the betrayal of his trust by an officer so honored by the democratic party. The exposure of Mr. Tate, the investigation of his office, and the reorganization of the department have been the work of democratic officers. Throughout the whole affair Governor Buckner conducted himself in a manner to command the confidence of the people, to maintain the public credit, and to place our finances in such a condition that, notwithstanding the defalcation, the name of the State would be untarnished, and the interest of the tax-payers would be protected.

For more than 20 years the democratic party has been in charge of the State affairs of Kentucky. During that period there has been but one man who has proven himself unworthy of the confidence reposed in him. During those 20 years our public affairs have been conducted with singular honesty, intelligence, economy and foresight. At every point the welfare of the tax-payers has been considered; expenditures have been limited to the strict needs of the Government; the school system has been vastly improved; the assessments have been equalized and perfected; the State penitentiary has been reorganized and put on a plane with the best institutions in the country, and, with the exception of the Treasury there has been no hint of dishonesty or shadow of mismanagement.

This record is one that appeals to every intelligent man. The party so conducting the affairs of the State is entitled to a vote of confidence and approval. Take any other State in the Union, whose affairs have been in the hands of the republican party and mark the contrast. The State of Kentucky is practically out of debt; its taxes for state purposes, excluding the school tax, have been as low during the past 20 years as those of any State in the Union, while the school tax is as large as that for all other purposes. Republican officials have squandered the funds of the people, have increased the rate of taxation, have created enormous debts, and by special legislation have built up, at the expense of the people, vast fortunes in the hands of a few individuals. This is the story from South Carolina to Nebraska. In the reconstructed States alone the republicans created in five years a debt of $291,627,015, equal to one-fourth of the National debt today. Let the contract warn the democrats of Kentucky against permitting the republican party to gain a foothold in any department of this State.

The democrats have made the financial condition of the State the envy of all sections.

The republicans have plundered every Southern State which they have controlled. Under republican guidance a debt of $300,000,000 was fastened on the reconstructed States.

In charge of the Freedmen's Savings Bank distinguished republicans robbed the poor black man of $3,000,000 and none of the thieves were ever made to disgorge.

Here in Kentucky take the record of the office of United States Marshal, and compare the past four years of democratic administration with the previous 20 years of republican scandals and inefficiency.

Compare the conduct of the pension agency by republicans with the record made by democrats.

Go to the legislature and consult the journals and you find that every bill of value to the State, every measure resulting in improving our finances, elevating our schools and equalizing taxation is the work of some democrat.

The republican minority has done nothing, suggested nothing, supported nothing in the interest of the people.

Is it possible that the people of Kentucky, refusing to trust the affairs of the State to the republican party when guided by Speed, Harlan and Bristow, will today turn from the democratic party, which has labored so faithfully and so successfully for the welfare of the public, and call to its assistance the party of Harrison and Tamm, led in Kentucky by the wonderful triumvirate,

Willson, Colson and Bradley? The mere suggestion is humiliating. These men and the party at their back are at war with every principle of good government. They praise all that is abhorrent to our people. They in their party alliances represent the greed, the avarice, the corruption and the debauchery of modern politics. Their associates are Dudley, Foraker and Tanner. Their organ at Cincinnati has been breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the people of Kentucky and our brethren of the South. We owe it to ourselves to our State, to every name sacred to us to defeat the machinations of these men and to redeem the financial credit of the State from the distrust involved in the very mention of Colson's name for treasurer, by an overwhelming majority for Sharp.

Democrats you have been warned in time; do your duty.

CRAB ORCHARD

—Very heavy rain storm Friday night. —It. H. Bronaugh's baby is very low with brain trouble from teething.

—While bicycling is coming to the front as an amusement the C. O. boys are not backward in this line, but don their tight-fitting stockings and skimming along the thoroughfares look like, as a little fellow who had not seen such a thing before said, "on roller skis."

—Johnnie Buchanan is home from Louisville on a visit. We suppose he has been playing the "devil" in the Times office and will soon blossom into a first-class editor from this "roll." R. S. Knowles, of Smith's Grove, Ky., was here Friday looking up lumber for the L. & N. R. R. Mr. Livingston is at his father-in-law's, Dr. Doores, teaching that baby more Dutch. Handsome Joe Brooks is here visiting the hot days away, to the delight of the young ladies.

—The many friends of Mrs. A. A. McKinney in this place express their deepest sympathies with Mr. McKinney in his sad bereavement. Her death will leave a vacancy felt everywhere, but while she leaves sad hearts here she fills a higher and holier place beyond the veil, like once when a sailor was upon the topmost mast of a ship, when the storm began to blow, the captain hallooed, "Look aloft!" so when the storms of life surround us, we should not look down into the sad vacancies left, but look up and above and realize a beautiful Providence in all the end of life, suffering ceased and loved ones transplanted to more exceedingly fair and happy home forever.

—The free schools in the country are under full blast now and some of the houses are almost blast furnaces this hot weather. Not enough attention is being given to the ventilation for summer and warmth for winter. Most of school houses are like ovens in summer and ice-boxes in winter. Low ceilings and open doors generally mark them, and again the object of plenty light is forgotten. Little narrow windows giving a scanty of light on dark days, and a scarcity of air passage on hot days, very few have any awnings on the sunny side to protect the children from the hot rays of the sun. All school houses should be built with tight floors, sides and ceiling high, with tall windows, and plenty of them, arranged so as to properly ventilate the room for both summer and winter.

—The ball at Crab Orchard Springs on Friday night was an elegant affair, although the heavy rain prevented many from adjoining towns from attending. The crowd was not large, but sufficient to make the occasion a most enjoyable one, and the stars were making faces at the little wee hours of the morn before the violin musing her bow and the harp hung silent on the wall. These occasions are delightful and the management of the Springs know how to make them so, and although the unprecedented rainy season has been a great drawback to the Springs, they do everything to make it pleasant to those who are there. More visitors are at both Crab Orchard Springs and Dripping than would be expected under the circumstances of such wet weather. Dripping Springs has a hop every night except Sunday and a dancing master to teach those who don't know how and introduce all new dances. B. G. Slaughter's song of his "Little Wild Rose" but now he has a "Lily." Dan, can't you give us something "awful sweet" about the "Lily of the Dripping Springs Valley?"

The republicans have plundered every Southern State which they have controlled. Under republican guidance a debt of $300,000,000 was fastened on the reconstructed States.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Ever since Miss Rose Richards taught music in an Institute at Jackson, Breathitt county, a handsome young lawyer, John E. Patrick, Esq., by name, has been making periodical visits here to see her. At first they were thought to be nothing more than friendly visits, but those who take cognizance of such matters finally saw that there was something up, tho' both concealed their real designs so well that it was actually reported that Miss Rose and a young man of Stanford were fixing to marry. People were therefore very much surprised last Thursday night to learn that she and Mr. Patrick, who was on a visit to her, had quietly left town in a buggy, and proceeding at once to Lancaster, had been made husband and wife. The ceremony occurred at Mr. W. B. Mason's, a cousin of the bride, and was solemnized by Rev. Mr. Frank. They did not return to Stanford, but took the train next morning for their home. The secrecy attending the affair was occasioned by no objection of Capt. and Mrs. Richards to Mr. Patrick, for he is a most excellent gentleman and worthy of the good wife Miss Rose will make him, but because of their strong opposition to their daughter marrying anyone. They thought the world and all of her and had tried from her youth to instill in her mind the fact that she ought not to marry anybody. For this reason she didn't have the heart to tell them of her intention, but preferred to take the course she adopted. While all of us regret very much to have Miss Rose leave us, for she is a most lovable and popular girl, her friends are pleased to know she has chosen so wisely and become the bride of one so worthy of her. Mr. Patrick is a rising young barrister, of excellent standing, and is a thorough christian gentleman. Everybody who knows her is aware of Miss Rose's superior qualities and is confident that she will make him a loving and true helpmeet. Our heartiest congratulations are extended, along with the hope that their days may be long upon the earth and always as happy as their honeymoon.

—In politics as in love the best plan is to put no confidence in man or woman either. Mr. Brice, of California, realized this. He courted his love for a certain beauty to a good friend and asked him to be his best man, which he promised, but before the day set for the marriage he ran off and married the girl himself. Brice pursued them and after fatally wounding his perfidious friend committed suicide.

—Her Royal Highness, the Princess Louise Victoria Alexander Duguar, eldest daughter of the Prince of Wales, was married at noon Saturday to Alexander William George, Earl of Fife, Knight of the Thistle, in the private chapel of the Buckingham Palace.

—James Morgan, aged 80 years, a wealthy and eccentric citizen of Morgan county, Ind., is advertising that he will give $5000 for a wife. He stipulates that the matrimonial applicant must be young and of good appearance.

—Richard Sullivan, a young farmer residing near Kirksmansville, was shot and dangerously wounded by the father of a young lady to whom he was paying attention.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—There was a dance at the Thompson house Saturday night.

—The free school commenced in this district Monday, with C. R. Brock principal and Mrs. Cora Pearl assistant.

—The case of Henry Lickliter and others, charged with shooting and stabbing, was continued from Saturday until Thursday.

—J. & E. H. Hackney are erecting a substantial stone pavement in front of their store. The rocks are 4 feet wide and 8 feet long.

—There is an abundance of apples in Laurel this year and Apple Jack is being made at several places in the county and will be plentiful by the election. "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof."

—It is now believed that the man Jones, who was run over by the cars at Barbourville last Sunday night, was murdered and placed on the track, as a child with considerable blood on it was found near him.

—Prof. Elliott, of Kirksville, preached at the Reform church Thursday night. Rev. O. F. Duval preached in Manchester Saturday and Sunday and Rev. S. K. Roney occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church here Sunday. A revival meeting is in progress at Pittsburg, conducted by Revs. Medaris and Sturdy, of the Baptist church.

—About 21 of Laurel's citizens, who live on the road leading from East Bernstadt to Manchester, were arraigned before Judge Boring Friday for refusing to work the road. Toll-gates have been erected on the road and they didn't think it right to be forced to pay toll and work too, but it was the opinion of the court that they should work the road, and they were fined for refusing to obey the orders of the overseers. Some are not satisfied with the decision and say they will have the matter tested in a higher court.

'SQUIRE JOHN BAILEY

Says Turnersville Nominated Dick Warren and will see that he is Elected.

It may not be generally known, but it is a fact, nevertheless, that Hon. R. C. Warren was really nominated for the legislature by the democrats of the Turnersville precinct. It was the only precinct that instructed for him and set the ball in motion that finally made him our standard-bearer. Did whisky men manipulate that meeting? We shall let Squire John Bailey answer in his own words. "I represented the precinct committee, J. A. Givens, at the meeting at Turnersville, called it to order and Dr. Green Moore was made permanent chairman. At my suggestion, J. W. Givens, Dr. Moore and J. M. Carter were appointed delegates and they were unanimously instructed to vote for Warren."

"How did you and these gentlemen vote, Squire, on the prohibitory law?"

"I voted for it myself, and each of the other gentlemen did, as the poll books will show."

"Were you acting in the interest of the so-called whisky ring when you instructed for Warren?"

"Of course not. The question was not thought of. We simply believed Dick Warren the best and strongest man for the race and knowing his clear record as a democrat, we wanted him to run and said so."

"How are you and the other democrats of your section satisfied with your choice after his canvass of a month?"

"We are perfectly satisfied with him and proud that our precinct alone would not take 'No' from him. His position on the question of amending the prohibitory law is the true democratic one, for if the people have the right to accept a law by their votes they ought to have the right to reject it if they find it does not work satisfactorily. Anyway, I believe if our side is given the right to take a second vote, the other side ought to have the same privilege."

"How is your precinct going next Monday?"

"I won't give any figures, but you may rest assured Warren's majority will be largest any democrat has gotten there for years."

The old squire has a mighty level head and it was really refreshing to hear him talk. He is the truest line of a democrat and straightest of temperance men, and said when we suggested a fear that he had gone off like his brother, "What! I leave the democratic party? I shall probably die out of it sometime, but in no other way will I go out." That's the kind of a democrat we like and the only kind that is worth a tinker's or any other kind of a dam. After reading this interview and knowing that 19 of the 27 delegates that nominated Mr. Warren voted for the prohibitory law and but 4 are against it, will the prohibitionists continue their lying cry that Warren was nominated by the whisky men? So far as we are concerned, it would not matter with us if he was, so that those who nominated him were democrats, but we have a lie and despise liars and are always ready to denounce them and set the public right. All of the efforts of these Amias are devoted towards fooling temperance democrats into deserting their party or shirking their duty and we hope none will be so glibly deceived by it. Vote for Dick Warren and the other democrats on the ticket and you will not regret it.

—Gov. Buckner has offered a reward of $250 for the arrest of Mr. Houngrum.

—A blacksnake 9 feet in length, measuring 28 inches in circumference at the largest part of its body, and weighing 48 pounds, was killed near Seymour, Ind., Sunday.

—A C. & O. train was wrecked near Memphis Sunday, when Mail Agent Sommerville was killed and several other trainmen badly hurt. No passengers were injured.

—Jacob Alkie, a wealthy farmer of Bracken county, is supposed to have been waylaid and robbed by Henry Smith and Herschel Lee. His body has been found in West Fork river.

The Pride of Woman.

A clear, pearly and transparent skin is always a sign of pure blood, and all persons troubled with dark, greasy, yellow or blotchy skin can rest assured that their blood is out of order. A few doses of Beggs' Blood Purifier & Blood Maker will remove the cause and the skin will become clear and transparent. Try it, and it will satisfy you. It is not given in vain. It is fully warranted. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

It is customary for all our people to run out when a circus comes to town. It is also customary for all who have ever tried Ganten's chicken cholera cure to recommend it to their neighbors. It is sold on the plan of "no cure, no pay," by McKelberts & Stages.

Why Is It

That people linger along always complaining about that continual red itching "one o'clock" Beggs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will remove the cause and the skin will become clear and transparent. Try it, and it will satisfy you. It is not given in vain. It is fully warranted. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoea-balm in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Beggs' Diarrhoea Balm will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

State Treasurer,
STEPHEN G. SHARPE.FOR STATE SENATOR,
R. J. BRECKINRIDGE, OF BOYLE.For Representative, Lincoln County,
RICHARD C. WARREN.

A DEMOCRAT, in whom there is no guile, a temperance man by theory and practice and a high-toned christian gentleman, incapable of a dishonorable thought or action, Hon. R. C. Warren is indeed a model candidate. Nothing can be truthfully said against him of a disparaging character and no flaw could be detected with a microscope on his political record. He has borne himself with great credit during the canvass and has more than ever endeared himself to the hearts of true democrats. The principles of the party, including its declarations of the inalienable right of local self-government have been intelligently and eloquently discussed by him and he has convinced every one who honestly believes in that right and the right of the majority to rule, of the justness and fairness of an amendment to the prohibitory law, restoring the right which that enactment takes from them. He does not propose another election on the question, but simply places the matter in a shape so that the people can act as they see proper in the premises. Only this and nothing more. If the people wish to vote thereafter on the question, they can do so by complying with the provisions of the law regarding called election when if the majority want to continue the law they will do so and whatever their decision Mr. Warren will cheerfully acquiesce. He is the candidate of no clique or ring, but of the straight-out democracy, and as such he claims your votes. Honor Lincoln county and yourselves by sending him to the legislature and putting a quietus on political parsons, who for the sake of an office would sell out their holy calling and bring the church itself into contempt.

Is the State platform adopted in convention last week, the Ohio prohibitionists declare that "No citizen shall be deprived of the right of suffrage on account of sex." Woman suffrage is one of the distinctive features of the so-called prohibition party, and the man who does not subscribe to it and all of its tenets, does not deserve even membership in the party, much less official preferment. Because it is unpopular here and everywhere that women do not desire to unsex themselves, Bro. Montgomery professes to be against woman suffrage, but it is only a dodge, such as is unworthy of the most ardent demagogue. Democrats, be not deceived by the old and threadbare recitations about the "drunkard's grave and the drunkard's hell," which the prohibitionists are using to cover their real designs, but stick to the old ship, which has weathered many a storm and withstood hundreds of just attempts to break it up as the I am Holier than Thou crowd is now endeavoring to make.

The republican bosses are beseeching the colored people to refrain from voting in the legislative race and the prohibitionists are begging the democrats who are not for them to stay at home, but we do not think either prayer will be heeded. Sensible democrats are not caught by the alleged temperance issue the prohibitionists have tried to inject into this canvass, but will come to the polls, vote early and see that their neighbors do likewise. There is a hen on in the Senatorial race and from all that we can gather Judge Breckinridge will have republican opposition, not the manly, open kind, but that most cowardly of all quests of game, the still hunt. But no matter whether he has or not, it is the duty of every democrat to go to the polls and record his vote for our nominees. Forewarned is forearmed, so take the side of safety and run no risks.

The pension office investigation has borne good fruit already. An application for pension has actually been refused. A soldier named Taffa was killed by a comrade in a drunken row and his widow asked for a pension. According to former rulings she ought to have had it, but while the office is on its ps and qs it must make an appearance of virtue.

It is generally expected that the president will appoint Attorney General Miller as Associate Justice on the Supreme Bench. He was his law partner and Harrison is noted for trying to keep the best things in the family, as it were. Miller has no fitness whatever for the high position, but that doesn't count under republican rules.

Editor RICHARDSON, of the Glasgow Times, warns the fellow who threatened to pull his mulecar that the man that tackles his car will have his hands full. We knew that Bro. Jim had a pretty good-sized car, but had no idea it was as large as he seems to think. But he ought to know, so we will not dogmatize.

The Courier-Journal has a long letter from Pineville to show that the Colson family have gotten away with half a dozen or more people, principally by assassination, and that one of the brothers, who is school commissioner of Bell is a meaner defaulter than Tate, though on a much smaller scale. There is nothing particularly bad in the record of David Colson, the candidate for State Treasurer, except that he is a bull-dozer and frequently wants to take the law in his own hands, and while he should not be held accountable for his brothers' acts and while we are not especially struck on this method of electioneering against a man, it must be admitted that Mr. Colson has drawn it out himself by his rantings about Tate and assertions that no democrat is to be trusted because that scoundrel defaulted. On the same character of argument the matter comes pretty close to Mr. Colson as it is his brothers and not the republican party generally which are accused of assassination and robbery. If the mare trots the colt is pretty apt to and it is rare that you find one angel among six brothers whose records as given show that they are devils incarnate. We know nothing about Mr. Colson ourselves except that he is apparently quite a clever man, but we do know the history of Judge Stephen G. Sharpe and know that no stain has ever rested on his character or that of any member of his family. You will run no risk by voting for him, for he is a tried and true man, worthy of the confidence Gov. Buckner and the party have placed in him. See therefore that you help to swell his majority to 50,000.

There are occasions when the slow machinery of the law is inadequate for the proper example to be made of criminals, and when a rape has been committed is one of them. About 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon Jim Kelly, a burly negro brute of 200 pounds, brutally assaulted Mrs. Peter Crow, the delicate wife of the section boss of Paris, and accomplished his purpose. The alarm was given and the beast was soon lodged in jail. That night at 2 o'clock 100 determined citizens went to the jail and under the pretext that they wanted to put a prisoner in, threw the jailer off his guard and succeeded in getting their man. Next morning his carcass, suspended from a bridge near town, told the rest of the story and furnished an example of what all ravers of women may expect. The lynching was conducted in a most quiet and orderly manner, showing that the best citizens and not hoodlums, who thirst for human blood, had performed the righteous work.

When the democrats took charge of the State government in 1867, she was only paying 72 cents per capita for the education of her white children alone. Now both races are provided for and the per capita for this year is $2.15, just three times what it was in 1867. Doesn't this look very much like the republicans are falsifying when they assert that the democratic party has failed to provide for popular education in Kentucky?

The counting of the cash and surpluses in the U. S. treasury shows that there are $700,000,000. A shortage of $8 was found in the new silver vault, where $5,000,000 silver dollars are stored, and a deficit of $15 in the old silver vault, containing $45,000,000. Both shortages were immediately made good. It is believed that this money was lost during the recent flooding of the vault.

The constitution being prepared for Washington Territory's assumption of Statehood, provides that no governor shall be eligible to the U. S. Senate during the term for which he was elected. It would be a good thing for the people if all State constitutions provided the same thing. Governors would then attend to their business and not use their office for electioneering purposes.

Colson spoke three hours at Springfield in order to prevent a democrat from answering him, but it didn't work. The young man finally ran down after telling all he knew a half dozen times and more than he knew fully a dozen. The crowd quietly waited and were handsomely rewarded by seeing the mountain bantam completely picked alive.

The prohibitionists of Ohio have nominated a preacher for governor, with the suggestive name of Helwig. If he gives up his holy office for political preferment he and his gang will soon be lifting up their voices and crying: "We have sinned against God and man and down to Helwig must go."

The Paducah Standard excellently says: "Gen. Apathy," who has been commanding the democratic forces in Kentucky, has retired and Gen. Enthusiasm will lead them to victory on the 1st Monday in August." The Purchase is up in arms and can be relied on to do its duty as usual.

The Shelbyville Sentinel says that Harry McCarty, of the Jessamine Journal, will be candidate for doorkeeper of the next Kentucky House of Representatives. He is a capital fellow and if the press boys could elect him they would do so by unanimous vote.

"We admit that we do not have any too much love for Mr. Colson." This is from the republican London Echo, but an honest confession is always good for the soul and Bro. Dyche is making a reputation of late for frankness.

It is said that one Col. McMurry, of Garrard, is the republican candidate for State Senator. Does anybody know him? We do not, but you can wager your bottom dollar that every son-of-a-gun of a republican will vote for him, if he is a candidate. Our candidate, Judge Breckinridge, is thoroughly qualified and a good all-around man for the position. It would, therefore, be a public calamity to leave him at home and send some unknown and unqualified individual to represent us in the Senate. Democrats, do not permit such a thing to approach even a possibility, but go the polls and vote and work for our distinguished nominee.

It is said that figures won't lie, but any well-posted man will say after hearing a republican tell about the State's financial condition, that they do, or the fellow who uses them is himself an arrant liar. Be sure it's the fellow, not the "diggers," dear reader.

—Cincinnati reports a horrible murder. Dr. Jones' body was found in a sewer man-hole with wounds that showed that he was murdered. His negro coachman confessed on being charged with the crime that he had knocked the doctor on the head in his own yard Thursday afternoon, had dragged the body into the stable, where he left it until night, when he put it in a bag, tied up with a strap, and carried it through the streets until he reached the man-hole. The most horrible part of the recital is the fact that the doctor was still alive when thrown into the sewer.

Which looks beyond this vale of tears,
When what we now deplore
Shall rise in full immortal prime
To bloom and fade no more.
